

$1,290 In Awards

To Young Ladies of Pecos Valley

By Woolverton Practical Business College Company and The Register-Tribune.

What We Want You to Do.

This is a plain business proposition, in which we are pushing the business of the Woolverton Practical Business College, the great commercial school of the Southwest, and the subscription list of the Roswell Register-Tribune, the big Pecos Valley weekly. To accomplish this double purpose, we are ready to pay our good money, asking no one to turn their hands over for us without proper pay.

To have a distinct basis to figure from, and at the same time a plan that is within the reach of girls of the most modest means, we use subscriptions to the Register-Tribune as the medium, and purely to keep track of the work of each worker, we will publish from the first issue of the Register-Tribune in September to the last issue of October, the following:

AWARD COUPON

I hereby pay $.....1906
to the Roswell Register-Tribune. Please record the..... votes for Miss.....

Signed.....
(Either give this to one of the contestants or forward to Award Department, Register-Tribune, Roswell, N. M.)

While a great many people are already subscribers of the Register-Tribune, there are many more who only need the asking to subscribe, or pay arrears, and for every dollar you collect you are entitled to 100 votes, or one vote for each one cent. In the event you do not reach the awards, you will be paid 10 per cent of all the money you collect.

Remember, a Gold Watch and two Scholarships go to each town
The Piano to whichever Town has the Hardest Worker

Subscribers not called upon can see to what time they are paid by looking at the address on their paper, and allowing $1.00 for each year, mailing the above coupon to Award Department Register-Tribune, Roswell, N. M., and their votes will be credited in the weekly statement printed in the Register-Tribune.

About Those Scholarships

We presume that every one knows the value of a Woolverton College Scholarship, but we will say that these colleges are extensively advertised—therefore it looks reasonable that to attend one of these colleges would be far better than to attend some college which is almost unheard of out of its own shadow. These colleges offer the highest course of instructions, taught by accomplished teachers, who are experts in their line, and when you graduate, you receive a handsome diploma and a good position.

The Roswell College was opened last May and is well attended.

The Woolverton Practical Business College Company has purchased two of the best lots in the city and is now erecting the finest college building ever erected by any company in the southwestern country.

The Necessary Conditions

Each young lady should first send us her name and address, or her friends may do so for her. We shall at once register her name and mail her instructions how to proceed. We will also mail her a receipt book, the stubs of which will count 100 votes for each $1.00. She will then begin to solicit subscribers for the Register-Tribune at $1.00 a year. We will also send her bills to be collected on old subscriptions, which will entitle her to as many votes as the new subscription. Each subscriber paying shall, however be entitled to vote for the one of his or her choice.

Each young lady may also solicit students for the Woolverton Practical Business College, to attend at Roswell, N. M., or San Angelo, Tex. We will allow her $5.00 for each student who enters college or pays for the scholarship $55.00 before this awarding proposition closes, which will be sixty days from the opening, or November 1st.

Of course not more than three young ladies in each town or city can win an award, but those who enter their names and fail to receive award, we will pay 10 per cent of all the money collected for the paper, and $5.00 for each student they solicit. By this plan no one can lose. Each one will receive a very valuable award or receive pay for trying.

We have a young lady stenographer stationed at Roswell, who will correspond with the young ladies, encourage them and answer questions they desire to ask in regard to how to secure subscribers.

It will not be necessary for each one to solicit all her subscribers, as many of her friends will send their subscriptions and notes direct to this office, and we will have a book-keeper, who will register her name and the number of votes received.

Now there you are. Go and get one of those fine awards—a high grade piano, worth $450 in cash, or a gold watch, or a scholarship in the most up-to-date commercial college in the southwest.

You can begin right now, holding the money till your receipts come.

Inducements to Subscribers

Subscribe for the Register-Tribune now, which will entitle you to 100 votes for some deserving young lady whom you desire to win one of these valuable awards.

Remember, your votes may make your favorite win the piano or a nice gold watch or a scholarship in the Commercial College, where she will receive an education that will make her independent, which may lead to future fortune.

It requires no special training to go after the awards. The proposition is simple. Every dollar you collect for us means 100 votes and you give value received in return—for the Register-Tribune speaks for itself as the big and best paper in the Pecos Valley.

Each week you mail your week's collections and the following issue of the Register-Tribune will show correct credit, and just how you stand.

You will be well paid for your work, whether you get an award or not.
